

Questions to Find Your Calling:

1. What do you genuinely enjoy doing?

2. How do you like doing it?

3. Is the area you enjoy working in solving a problem? What is it?

4. Does the thought of working in this area keep you up at night?

5. Does it allow you to use more than one skill? What skills can you use?

6. Do you feel most fulfilled and utilized in this area? Why?

Your calling is like a familiar friend knocking at the door, let him in! You can experience the joys of life by responding to the invitation.

Regina E. Coley